Holladay sets vision for Valparaiso Medical Arts Building

(Valparaiso, Ind.) – Holladay Properties has recently placed under contract the 31,000 square foot medical office building commonly known as Valparaiso Medical Arts (VMA). The site, set on 10 acres at the corner of Evans Ave & Sturdy Rd, presents a unique redevelopment opportunity for the region’s most active development firm.

Holladay Properties’ vision for the building is to reestablish VMA as a thriving health care facility for physicians operating in the Valparaiso community. Holladay intends to dramatically improve the facility and make the space more appealing and practical for medical uses. The firm also intends to explore development opportunities for the surrounding land. Medical practitioners interested in leasing space at the facility should contact Holladay Properties.

About Holladay Properties:
