HOLLADAY PARTNER HONORED

Manette Tepe, a partner in Holladay Properties and Senior Vice President of Development, was honored this past week by the South Bend and Elkhart Chambers of Commerce as one of the most influential people “Under Forty” in the Michiana community. Manette has worked for Holladay for over 12 years and, as a licensed architect and interior designer, has been active on nearly every project Holladay has been involved with over that time. Manette was honored at a luncheon held at Bethel College on Friday, May 23, 2008.
